

Technical Pages

When ordering a pump with a dry pit stand assembly, please indicate what orientation you require the pump discharge to face in relation to the suction flange. The standard orientation (shown below) is with both suction elbow and discharge flange facing the same direction. Alternate arrangements include the discharge facing opposite of the suction elbow, perpendicular to the elbow, or at a 45 degree angle.

